November 3, 2020

Greetings Pontiac School District,

As we prepare to return our students to virtual learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic in our area, there are a few important updates regarding food service that we would like to share. We know the schedule has changed frequently throughout this time and we appreciate your flexibility as we have been working to determine the best way to ensure all families receive food weekly.

We are confident that the schedule outlined below will be effective and efficient for families. Should you have any questions please don't hesitate to reach out. Families who have yet to sign up for home delivery that would like to, please fill out the survey here:
